

The COVID-19 Snapshot is the American Hospital Association's look at what America's hospitals and front-line workers are facing as they provide care during the public health emergency. America's hospitals and health systems continue to face historic challenges, including unprecedented financial pressures. It is vitally important that hospitals and health systems receive further support and resources to ensure that they can continue to deliver critical care for patients and communities.

FROM THE FRONT LINES

Our health care workers are exhausted. They're not just tired, they're exhausted.... they need our support once again as we ask them to continue this journey and deal with this surge.
