

National Human Trafficking Awareness Month digital toolkit

January 11th is designated as National Day of Human Trafficking Awareness, and January is National Human Trafficking Prevention Month. The purpose of this toolkit is to raise awareness on the various types of human trafficking and to provide hospitals and health systems with resources to combat human trafficking in health care settings. With videos, graphics and posts in both English and Spanish, this toolkit is a resource for AHA members and all organizations in the fight against human trafficking.
